THE Republican Congressional caucus will meet Saturday afternoon and the Democratic caucus in the evening. Keifer refuses to withdraw from the field. He hopes to get the nomination by a proposition to nominate all the old officers of the House by acclamation. Carlisle and Randall are both still confident. The former expects to receive the nomination on the first ballot. Randall is said to have captured twenty of the Carlisle men by promising them places on important committees. Carlisle refuses to make up his committees in advance.

B. McAuley. In noticing the presentation of "The Jerseyman," at Philadelphia, the Inquirer says:

Mr. McAuley appeared last night at the Arch street theatre in a new American comedy entitled "The Jerseyman," in which he sustains the part of Gildersleeve, a speculative member from Mackerelville. The play is well constructed and interesting, although the plot is made subservient to the main purpose of displaying Mr. McAuley's humor and fun. In his personations there is always a deal of individuality, but it is the individuality of the artist rather than of the man. The part of Punk was presented last night with as much emphasis as that in "The Messenger from Jarvis Section," which was given last week, but it was as widely different person. The piece is based on the loss and restoration of an English heiress Dot, abandoned as a sea baby, and brought up by Captain Maberly as his own daughter. The incidents are striking, and the situations are strong.

CHINA still continues to be our most important customer for cotton goods. There has been during the first six months of the present year no material change in the character of the goods exported, and the demand was chiefly restricted to drills, sheetings, shirtings, jeans, colored cottons and printed calicoes. Large quantities of goods were sent to Canada by rail and to Mexico and other foreign markets via Texas, California and New Orleans, of which no regular record is kept. To nearly all the countries to which we export cotton to any regular extent, England sends larger quantities of goods. The exceptions to this, however, are Mexico and the Argentine Republic. To China, as already stated, our largest customer, England's export's, inclusive of Hong Kong, have largely increased during the past year.

This programme of the Cincinnati Opera Festival embraces the modern and classic schools of Italian, German, French opera, with their most famous composers. Several of these operas have never been performed in America, and the majority permit the grandest display of the spectacular drama, with beautiful scenery and costumes, and a thousand rich and curious accessories, with a larger chorus than is found on any stage in the world, and a numerous orchestra. They, at the same time, introduce the world's famous prima donnas, Nilsson, Sembrich, Valeria, Fursch, Madi, Scelchi, Trebelli; with such artists as Campanini, Stagno, Del Puente, Kaschmann, Mirabella, Novara, and others. In every sense of the word, this is an Opera Festival. One reason for the wonderful popularity of these festivals, is the low prices of admission. Season tickets for two weeks, twelve performances, is $20. For one week, six performances, $11. Two dollars for admission, and a good seat, and one dollar admission makes it the "people's opera." The festival begins February 11th, 1884.

SCROFULA

and all scrofulous diseases, Sores, Erysipelas, Eczema, Blisters, Ringworm, Tumors, Carbuncles, Boils, and Eruptions of the Skin, are the direct result of an impure state of the blood.

To cure these diseases the blood must be purified, and restored to a healthy and natural condition. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has for over forty years been recognized by eminent medical authorities as the most powerful blood purifier in existence. It frees the system from all foul humors, enriches and strengthens the blood, removes all traces of mercurial treatment, and proves itself a complete master of all scrofulous diseases.

A Recent Cure of Scrofulous Sores.

Some months ago I was troubled with scrofulous sores (ulcers) on my legs. The limbs were badly swollen and inflamed, and the sores discharged large quantities of offensive matter. Every remedy I tried failed, until I used AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, of which I have now taken three bottles, with the result that the sores are healed, and my general health greatly improved. I feel very grateful for the good your medicine has done me. Yours respectfully, Mrs. J. A. O'BRIEN, 148 Sullivan St., New York, June 24, 1882.

All persons interested are invited to call on Mrs. O'Brien: also upon the Rev. Z. P. Wilds of 78 East 54th Street, New York City, who will take pleasure in testifying to the wonderful efficacy of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, not only in the cure of this lady, but in his own case and many others within his knowledge.

The well-known writer on the Boston Herald, B. W. Ball, of Rochester, N.H., writes, June 7, 1882: "Having suffered severely for some years with Eczema, and having failed to find relief from other remedies, I have made use, during the past three months, of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, which has effected a complete cure. I consider it a magnificent remedy for all blood diseases."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

stimulates and regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, renders and strengthens the vital forces, and cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Rheumatic Gout, Catarrh, General Debility, and all diseases arising from an impoverished or corrupted condition of the blood, and a weakened vitality.

It is incomparably the cheapest blood medicine, on account of its concentrated strength, and great power over disease.

CAPT. M. M. CLAY, well known in turf circles died at Paris, this week.

A BED-ROOM suit of furniture worth $300, at Henry Ort's, is worth going to see.

The postoffice closed at ten o'clock this morning and will not open again until to-morrow.

The lady who advertised recently in this paper for a feather bed, will please call at this office.

A GRAY eagle killed a few days ago by Mr. H. P. Fitch, of Lewis county, measured six feet from the end of one wing to the other.

A Festival will be given in the school house at Aberdeen, on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week for the benefit of the school. All are invited.

At Flemingsburg, on Saturday, a little son of Mr. E. J. Dusey, fell upon an axe, splitting open his knee in such a manner that it may cripple him for life.

ATTENTION is directed to a hog item in our Washington correspondence. It is, however, nothing to excite surprise as occurrences vastly worse occur here every day.

DR. L. HERR, of Lexington, bought of Mr. Kilpatrick, of New York, the chestnut stallion Sir Walter, by Aberdeen; dam Lady Winfield, by Edward Everett, for $10,000.

PROF. W. W. RICHMOND and Mayor L. N. Holiday left to-day on a hunting expedition. They will make their headquarters at the farms of Mr. John McDonald and Mr. Amos Wilson in this county.

The satin lined overcoats to be placed on 'Hechinger Bros. & Co.'s counters next Monday, are offered as the bargains of the season. If you want a fashionably made overcoat of the best fabric at a low price, this is a good opportunity.

At the Second Presbyterian Church in Lexington, last Sunday, a collection of $200 was asked for foreign missions, but when the proceeds were counted up it was found that $500 had been given. Lexington is trying to imitate Maysville.

The will of Mr. Joseph Throop, who died suddenly at Poplar Plains, recently has been admitted to probate. His estate, which amounts to about $15,000 is devised to his wife, and at her death it is to go to the Female Orphan School, at Midway, Ky.

A LITTLE colored boy yesterday, on Second street, set down a basket containing a lot of groceries, and while his back was turned two hogs made a meal of the contents. The work was neatly and expeditiously done. Small boys with baskets or hogs must go. Which shall it be?

The Maysville BULLETIN heads an article "How to cook the Thanksgiving turkey." Almost anybody knows how to cook the turkey, but the vital question with some of them is, how to get it.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel.

A good way to get it, and the one in vogue here, is to pay 12 1/2 cents a pound for it. The old fashioned way of finding it in the house after some dark night has been abandoned in this neighborhood.

The "O. B." letters printed in the Republican and read with so much interest by the people of Maysville, have been published in book form and are now for sale at the book stores. The printing, which is the work of the Republican, is very neatly done. The price of the books 50 cents. Every citizen should have a copy.

A COUNTRY merchant who had just returned from Cincinnati said, yesterday, to one of our leading grocers:

"I was offered canned tomatoes at $1.15 a dozen."

"I can supply you," replied the Maysville dealer, "with all you want at $1.05 a dozen."

Comment is unnecessary.

The advertisement of Mr. Henry Ort, successor to White & Ort, appears elsewhere. Mr. Ort has a very large stock of furniture on hand that embraces all kinds, from the cheapest to the most artistic. Every article in the stock will be sold at a less price than the purchaser would have to pay for the same article at Cincinnati, and Mr. Ort will convince you of it if you will call and see him.

STRANGERS who sat down to dinner to-day at the European Hotel must have been impressed with the idea that Maysville is a good place to spend Thanksgiving, and they would, no doubt be still further surprised to learn that the dinner to-day was not a whit better than mine host Heiser ordinarily prepares for his guests. The tables of the European are well provided and no hotel in the State, of the same pretensions, can boast of better.

A Word to the Ladies.

The city council in submitting the question as to whether hog-breeding shall continue in the city, to the legal voters, many of whom are hog owners, and directly interested in maintaining the nuisance, did not consider how much interested the ladies of Maysville were in getting rid of the offensive and disreputable practice of permitting hogs to run at large and commit all manner of trespasses, wherever they please. No part of the community suffers more from the presence of the hog in the town than the ladies. They encounter them upon the sidewalks, in the streets and in all public places. The hogs invade their premises, destroy their gardens, and not infrequently enter their residences. It will not do to say they must keep their front doors and gates always closed. That cannot be legally required of them, but our public officers should make hog owners know that the law makes them liable for all trespasses by their hogs. It is only because of the prevalent idea that a tax on a hog is a license for the hog to depredate without responsibility, and the refusal of persons to prosecute for such offenses that the hog owners are so entirely indifferent as to the damage done by their hogs.

If the ladies cannot express their abhorrence of this evil at the polls they can at least use their influence with their husbands, brothers and friends to rid the city of it, and this we earnestly ask every lady in the city to do.

Wood Carving.

It has occurred to the BULLETIN that wood carving might be pleasantly and profitably pursued in this city, by those who have the inclination and leisure to acquire the art. With a view of encouraging the organization of a class, at our request, Mr. Ben. Pittman, of the Academy of Design at Cincinnati, has kindly recommended a young lady, who is a competent teacher and who is ready to begin work the first of next January. provided a good class can be formed by that time. There are a number of persons in Maysville of artistic tastes and genius who will no doubt be glad to enter such a class, or who will aid in the organization of it. All such persons and others who wish to learn the art, will please leave their names at Frank Phister's book store.

PERSONALS.

Miss Carrie Hubbard is visiting friends at Elizaville.

Mr. S. Simons has gone to Cincinnati to buy holiday goods.

Mr. John King, who has been very sick, is much better.

Professor B. F. Williams is eating his Thanksgiving dinner at Mr. Olivet to-day.

Mr. Chas. Chas. B. Anderson is in the city. He is looking well and appears to enjoy farm life.

Miss Mamie Pearce, of this city, will be married at an early day to Mr. John Dodd, of Louisville.

Mr. J. T. Henry, late of this city, is now traveling for the firm of J. C. Hoppe & Co., of Cincinnati.

Miss Hattie Wood, of Washington, and Miss Hattie McAttee, of Lewisburg, are the guests of the family of Mr. A. H. Thomson.

Miss Reica Grinnan, one of Cynthia's most fascinating belles, is expected at Aberdeen soon, to attend the wedding of two very popular young people of this neighborhood.
